Friday, 24th September 2021 Movie night of the student initiative Fairquer

18:00 im Haus Zoar, Kapuzinerplatz 12, 41061 Mönchengladbach

Tickets: 4€ per person

<https://www.kino-haus-zoar.de/detail/92278/Made%20in%20Bangladesh>

The student initiative Fairquer from the Niederrhein University of Applied Sciences in cooperation with FEMNET e.V. will show the feature film "Made In Bangladesh" followed by a discussion and Q&A session. The film deals with garment production in Bangladesh and focuses on the seamstresses as well as the topic of labour rights and trade unions. After the film, Sina Marx, an expert on the textile industry in Bangladesh, will answer questions from the audience!

Fairquer is a group of students from the Department of Textile and Clothing Technology at Niederrhein University of Applied Sciences in Mönchengladbach. The group campaigns for more sustainability in the textile and clothing industry and organises events on a wide range of topics related to textile sustainability.

The film screening will take place with a hygiene concept in accordance with the Covid 19 pandemic containment rules in force at the time of the event.

Start of lectures:
Monday, 27 September 2021
